If the first or second box is ticked, the "Fiktionsbescheinigung" does not entail the right of entry without a visa.

Provision on the implementation of the Agreement on the withdrawal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland from the European Union and the European Atomic Energy Community

As provided for in the provisions concerning the withdrawal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland from the European Union, with effect from the end of the transition period under this Agreement, British nationals and their family members who hold rights in Germany under Part Two Title II Chapter 1 or under Article 24 (2), also in conjunction with Article 25 (2) of the Agreement, are allowed to enter even if they do not have an expired residence permit or a visa in addition to their passport also with a "Fiktionsbescheinigung" (provisional residence document) in which the fourth box on page 3 is marked, indicating (In German) that "The holder has applied for documentation of a right of residence under the Freedom of Movement Act/EU or the EU-Switzerland Agreement, which is hereby provisionally certified", even if they do not have an expired residence permit and a visa in addition to their passport. That indication in the document is written in German and reads: "Der Inhaber / die Inhaberin hat die Dokumentation eines Aufenthaltsrechts nach dem FreizügG/EU oder dem Abkommen EU-Schweiz beantragt, das hiermit vorläufig bescheinigt wird."

The same box is marked if the holder already has applied for documentation of a right of residence under the Freedom of Movement Act/EU or the EU-Switzerland Agreement, but no document according to the uniform format defined by Council Regulation (EC) No 1030/2002 is ready for issuance. In this case, the right of residence is certified by the provisional residence document. In such cases, holders of a Fiktionsbescheinigung are allowed to enter if the fourth box on page 3 of the document is marked, indicating that "The holder has applied for documentation of a right of residence under the Freedom of Movement Act/EU or the EU-Switzerland Agreement, which is hereby provisionally certified", even if they do not have an expired residence permit or a visa in addition to their passport.

ROMANIA

I. Residence permits issued according to the uniform format laid down by Council Regulation (EC) No 1030/2002, as amended

1. PERMIS DE ȘEDERE (residence permit)

This document is produced by the Romanian firm Compania Națională Imprimeria Națională S.A. (National Printing Company). It is an identity document issued by the General Inspectorate for Immigration to foreigners whose right of residence has been granted or extended, or to foreigners granted international protection.

Residence permits have one of the following entries under the heading ‘Tipul de permis’ (type of permit):

- permis de ședere temporară (temporary residence permit);
- permis de ședere în scop de detașare (residence permit for the purpose of secondment);

The document attests the right to reside and work within the territory of Romania for the purpose of secondment.

- permis ICT (intra-corporate transferee permit);
- permis mobile ICT (intra-corporate transferee mobility permit);

The temporary residence permit is valid for 1 to 5 years, depending on the purpose for which it is issued. It is an identity document issued by the General Inspectorate for Immigration to foreigners whose right of residence has been granted or extended.

- permis de ședere pe termen lung - UE (long-term EU residence permit) (in accordance with Council Directive 2003/109/EC of 25 November 2003 concerning the status of third-country nationals who are long-term residents);
- permis de ședere pe termen lung (long-term residence permit) (issued to foreign nationals who were granted the right to long-term residence as an exception to the general rules);

Long-term residence permits issued to persons who have acquired the right to long-term residence as they previously held an EU Blue Card will state, under the heading ‘Observații’ (comments), that the holder is a ‘Fost posesor de Carte albastră a UE’ (former EU Blue Card holder) and indicate the personal identity number assigned by the General Inspectorate for Immigration.

This document is produced by the Compania Națională Imprimeria Națională S.A. (National Printing Company). The long-term residence permit is an identity document which is issued by the General Inspectorate for Immigration to persons who have acquired the right to long-term residence for a period of 10 years (for foreigners who are family members of Romanian citizens) and to other categories of foreigners for a period of 5 years.

- permis unic (single permit)

‘Drept de muncă’ (right to work) (and also the indication ‘sezonier’ (seasonal) for seasonal workers) is entered under the heading ‘Observații’ (comments), as is the personal identity number assigned by the General Inspectorate for Immigration. The document is valid for 1 to 5 years and attests the right to reside and work within the territory of Romania.

- permis de ședere temporară (temporary residence permit)

In the case of documents issued to foreigners granted a form of international protection in Romania, under the heading ‘Observații’ (comments), the type of protection – ‘Refugiat’ (refugee) or ‘Protecție subsidiară’ (subsidiary protection) – will be indicated along with the personal identity number. It is valid for 3 years for those with refugee status and 2 years for those with subsidiary protection status.

2. PERMIS DE ȘEDERE (residence permit) – this document is produced by the Compania Națională Imprimeria Națională S.A. (National Printing Company). The permanent residence permit is an identity document which is issued by the General Inspectorate for Immigration to British citizens and their family members who are subject to the Withdrawal Agreement and who acquired the right to permanent residence. It is valid for a period of 10 years.

‘Art. 50 TUE – ședere permanentă’ (Article 50 TEU – permanent residence) will be entered under the heading ‘Tipul de permis’ (type of permit), and ‘art. 18 (1) din WA’ (Article 18(1) WA) will be entered along with the personal identity number assigned by the General Inspectorate for Immigration under the heading ‘Observații’ (comments).

3. PERMIS DE ȘEDERE (residence permit) – this document is produced by the Compania Națională Imprimeria Națională S.A. (National Printing Company). The temporary residence permit is an identity document issued by the General Inspectorate for Immigration to British citizens and their family members who are subject to the Withdrawal Agreement and who are requesting an extension of their right of temporary residence in Romania. It is valid for a period of 5 years.

‘Art. 50 TUE – ședere temporară’ (Article 50 TEU – temporary residence) will be entered under the heading ‘Tipul de permis’ (type of permit), and ‘art. 18 (1) din WA’ (Article 18(1) WA) will be entered along with the personal identity number assigned by the General Inspectorate for Immigration under the heading ‘Observații’ (comments).

4. CARTE ALBASTRĂ A UE (EU Blue Card) (in accordance with Directive (EU) 2021/1883 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 20 October 2021 on the conditions of entry and residence of third-country nationals for the purpose of highly qualified employment, and repealing Council Directive 2009/50/EC)

This document is produced by the Compania Națională Imprimeria Națională S.A. (National Printing Company). It is an identity document valid for up to 3 years, issued by the General Inspectorate for Immigration to foreigners whose right to temporary residence has been extended for the purpose of work as a highly-qualified worker, or who have been granted this right without the obligation to obtain a visa. ‘Carte albastră a UE’ (EU Blue Card) will be entered under the heading ‘Tipul de permis’ (type of permit). The document attests the foreigner’s right to reside and work within the territory of Romania as a highly-qualified worker.

In addition to the entry referred to in paragraph (2), the EU Blue Card issued to a foreign national who has been granted international protection in Romania will also bear the indication ‘Protecție internațională acordată de RO la [data]’ (International protection granted by RO on [date]).

In addition to the entry referred to in paragraph (2), the EU Blue Card issued to a foreign national who has been granted international protection by another country will also bear the indication ‘Protecție internațională acordată de [numele statului membru] la [data]’ (International protection granted by [Member State name] on [date]), unless checks carried out by the General Inspectorate for Immigration in the Member State that granted international protection show that this has been withdrawn by final decision.

The EU Blue Card issued to a foreign national on the basis of higher professional skills for occupations other than those belonging to the minor group 133 ‘Information and Communications Technology Services Managers’, and the major subgroup 25 ‘Information and Communications Technology Professionals’, as set out in the Romanian Classification of Occupations (COR), will bear the indication ‘Excl. gr.min.133/sbgr. maj. 25 COR’ (excluding minor group 133 or major subgroup 25 of COR).
