The image shows a Spanish registration certificate for EU citizens. At the top center is the Spanish coat of arms, and to its right is the number 1094279. Below the coat of arms is the word "ESPAÑA" and the title "CERTIFICADO DE REGISTRO DE CIUDADANO DE LA UNIÓN". A green banner contains the warning: "AVISO: DOCUMENTO NO VÁLIDO PARA ACREDITAR LA IDENTIDAD NI LA NACIONALIDAD DEL PORTADOR". The text identifies the responsible authority as the "ENCARGADO DEL REGISTRO CENTRAL DE EXTRANJEROS EN COMISARÍA GENERAL DE EXTRANJERÍA Y FRONTERAS". The certificate certifies that the holder, D. Bevis om mottagen ansökan om uppehållsstatus

Du har lämnat in en ansökan om uppehållsstatus. I väntan på ett slutligt beslut har du med det här beviset rätt att vistas i Sverige i enlighet med villkoren i avtalet om Förenade kungariket Storbritannien och Nordirlands utträde ur Europeiska unionen och Europeiska atomenergigemenskapen.

Under tiden som du väntar på beslut har du samma rättigheter som en unionsmedborgare och kan resa in i EU och fortsätta att bo, arbeta och studera i Sverige. För dig som är viseringspliktig innebär detta att du fortsatt behöver giltig visering för att resa in i Sverige. Om du ska resa kan du behöva visa upp det här beviset vid gränskontroller, tillsammans med pass eller brittiskt nationellt identitetskort.

Certificate of application for residence status

You have submitted an application for residence status. With this certificate, you have the right to stay in Sweden until a final decision on the application has been made in accordance with the terms of the agreement on the withdrawal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland from the European Union and the European Atomic Energy Community.

While you are waiting for a decision, you have the same rights as a citizen in the EU and can travel into EU and continue to live, work and study in Sweden. If you are required to have a visa, this means that you still need a valid visa to travel into Sweden. If you are going to travel, you may need to present this certificate at border checks, along with a passport or UK national identity card.

Appointment with the police

When you apply for a new residence permit, either as a UK national or a family member of a UK national, the police will assess your application. If the police are in doubt about whether you can be granted a residence permit, they will forward your case to the UDI. If you are granted a residence permit you will have to book an appointment with the police. The police will check your identity and relevant documents. If you are going to receive a residence card, the police will take your fingerprints and photo, and will then order a residence card.

Please be aware of this

If you have an illegal stay in Norway, you can be expelled from Norway and you may also be registered in the Schengen Information System (SIS). This means that you receive a decision from the UDI stating that you are expelled from Norway for one or more years. You will then be subject to a prohibition against entry and cannot return to Norway until the prohibition against entry has expired. If you are registered in SIS, it will not be possible for you to enter other Schengen countries either.
